

Scott Sharkey Biography Chef/Owner

At the age of fourteen Scott attended a vocational high school for Culinary Arts in Upton, Massachusetts. Upon completion Scott decided to pursue high-end restaurants and country clubs in the New England region.

In order to progress in his career Scott decided to attend the Culinary Institute of America in Hyde Park, NY. Upon graduation he joined the Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company in Naples, FL in 1989.

He quickly progressed through the ranks and within 3 years was promoted to Executive Sous Chef. During his 7 tenure with the Ritz-Carlton Hotel Company Scott gained valuable experience in running a 5 Star, 5 Diamond operation.

In 1997 he moved to Las Vegas, NV to work for Caesar's Palace. He successfully opened the new banquet operation for Caesar's new tower expansion project.

In 1999 Scott joined the Venetian Culinary Opening Team as the Executive Sous Chef. Within 6 months he was promoted to Executive Chef.

In 2006 Scott joined Le Cordon Bleu as the Executive Chef in charge of Culinary Operations. Scott enjoyed his role in implementing up to date culinary trends to develop future culinary professionals.

Scott and his family moved to the Dallas metro-plex area in the Fall of 2010. Scott's entrepreneurial spirit, culinary expertise and compassion for the community inspired him to open up "Hey! What's 4 Dinner?" Scott's vision is to provide a well-balanced, nutritional and affordable dinner service delivered to the comforts of your home!